

Dear Coach,

You and your defensive staff are encouraged to attend the FCPGA “Coaching Effective Defense” Clinic, (emphasis on tackling, block protection ‘n shed, and block protection to tackle techniques and teaching progressions), Friday-Saturday, February 26-27, 2010 at Poway High School in Poway, California (North San Diego County).

The clinic is structured for Collegiate and NFL Defensive Coordinators and individual position coaches.

Our weekend together will include lecture, graphics, video study, on the field demonstration, and coaches participation “walk thru” sessions.

This is a “hands on” clinic so have your coaches attend in coaching wear.

Feel free to call me if you have any questions at (858) 748-7566.
